

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Wendy Villa
(602) 265-7324

Mario E Diaz & Associates Announces the Representation of Six New Clients

October 14, 2009- Mario E Diaz & Associates, a bipartisan public affairs and government relations firm with offices in Arizona, Nevada and Washington, D.C., has recently retained six new clients. The firm's president, Mario E Diaz, is most notably known for his political expertise which has been provided to large companies and candidates for public office including: Former Governor of Arizona and current U.S. Homeland Security Secretary Janet Napolitano, Congressman Ed Pastor and Phoenix City Councilman Michael Johnson.

The firm is proud to be providing public and government relations services to the following new clients:

The leading source of news in policy and politics at the state Capitol trusted by the public, elected officials and government officials across the state of Arizona. The firm will assist with business development efforts on behalf of the publication.

The nation's leading bus transportation provider that holds itself to the strictest standards of safety, a subsidiary of FirstGroup, the world's leading transportation corporation.

A consulting engineering firm specializing in geotechnical exploration and engineering, civil engineering, construction materials testing, environmental assessment and solid waste engineering.

One of the leading firms specializing in improving state and local government management, policy, and efficiency, including strategic planning with state and local agencies and the executive branch at the highest levels.

A public affairs company that specializes in corporate communications on national and international levels.

MARIO E DIAZ
& ASSOCIATES, L.L.C.

West Maricopa County Regional Association of REALTORS® represents realtors in 22 jurisdictions within the West Valley and has more than 6,000 members.

“Each one of our clients has specialized public and government relations service needs that we are eager to provide,” stated Mario E Diaz. “From representation at the local government level to the federal government in the areas of business development to policy tracking, we will work in a professional and ethical manner to accomplish their project goals.”

Mario E Diaz & Associates has earned a reputation for getting the job done for political candidates, government entities, labor organizations, corporations and non-profits. Founded in 2001 by company president Mario E Diaz, the firm has developed an unparalleled capacity of influencing local and national policy, and its team boasts several decades of experience in public policy.

For more information, please contact Wendy Villa at (602) 265-7324 or visit www.medandassociates.com.

#30